

If Your Association Forecloses, Will You Recover The Money You're Owed?

PREDICT BEFORE YOU COMMIT PRE-FORECLOSURE ANALYSIS

At Axela Technologies, we believe that foreclosure should be a last resort when attempting to collect community association maintenance fees.

But when faced with the last resort, how should you go about it? You need to put yourself in the best position to recover money owed to the association. And that requires in-depth knowledge of the economic status of the unit to make a savvy business decision.

Introducing the Pre-Foreclosure Analysis report from Axela Technologies.

Before you have your lawyer initiate foreclosure proceedings (and start racking up legal fees), this report will give you the information you need to make an informed decision on whether to pursue further legal action.

The pre-foreclosure analysis is the easiest way to forecast possible outcomes before you commit to a costly foreclosure proceeding.

HOA & CONDO BOARDS AND MANAGEMENT COMPANIES:

Don't throw good money after bad!
Get the answers you need to know
before you foreclose:

- ✔ Does our lien have priority?
- ✔ Is the property in probate?
- ✔ Will the bank take the title?
- ✔ Is it encumbered by tax liens?
- ✔ Does the owner have equity?
- ✔ Is the title marketable?
- ✔ Will we recover our money?

KNOW BEFORE YOU FORECLOSE

SAMPLE REPORT Forecast Foreclosure Outcomes:

Get answers from the Pre-Foreclosure Analysis Report and make an informed decision before you send good money after bad.

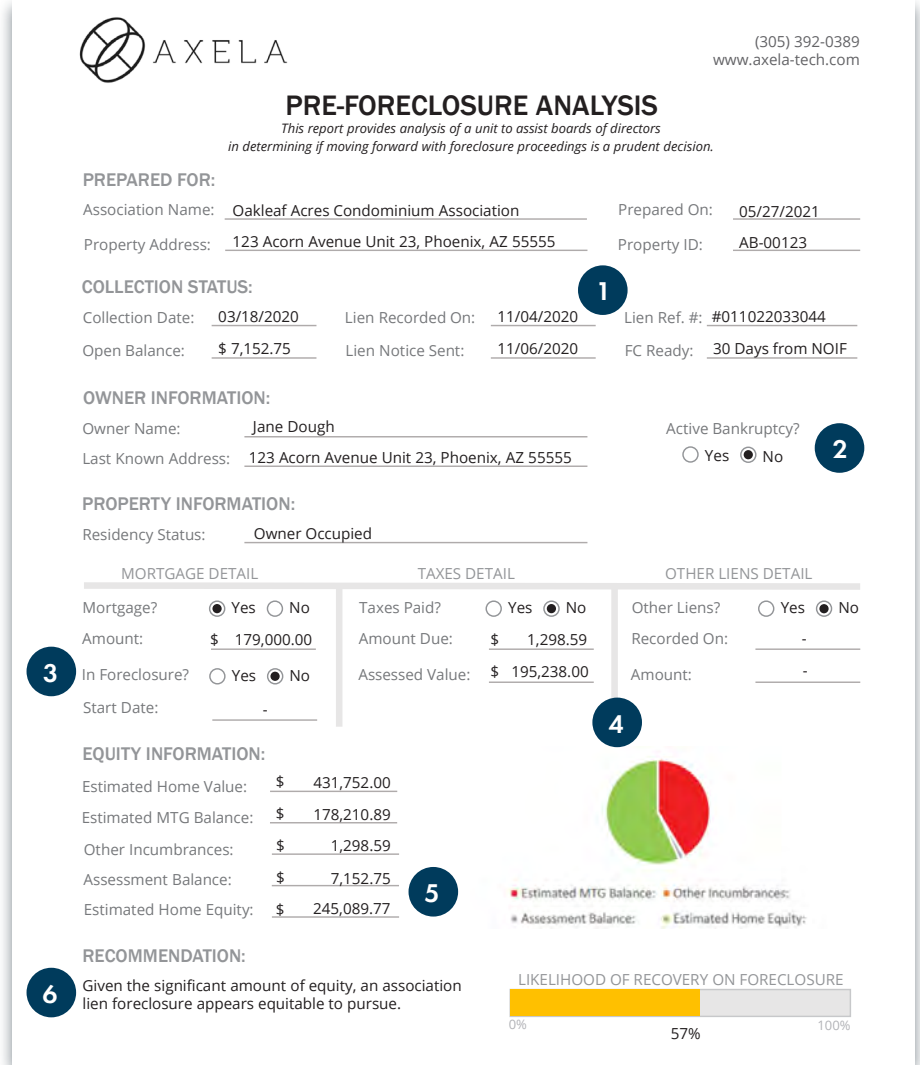

1. Does the association's lien pre-date any other existing liens that may take precedence?
2. Will the foreclosure get tied up in costly delays due to homeowner bankruptcy or probate proceedings?
3. Is there a senior lender foreclosure that puts the association foreclosure at risk?
4. Will the association end up with intervening title because the property is under water?
5. Will a third-party purchase the property at auction because there is equity?
6. Finally, get our expert opinion in the form of a straight answer to the question, "Is this property a good candidate for foreclosure?"

Before you decide to foreclose, make sure you will recover the money owed to your association!
